

Gravity wave experiments at UCM

Prof. Raymond Chiao
School of Natural Sciences
School of Engineering
University of California, Merced

I will give a review of the basic ideas and a progress on the design of the apparatus for generating and detecting gravity waves by means of "Millikan oil drops", where the oil is replaced by superfluid helium at milli-Kelvin temperatures in Tesla-scale magnetic fields.